A Competitive Examination of approved candidates will be held in the Public Offices, Bangalore, on the 2nd August 1897 and the following days, for the admission of Probationary Assistant Commissioners into the Mysore Civil Service, during the year 1897.

2. Candidates must be under 25 years of age on the 1st January 1897. Candidates more than 25 years, but under 30 years, of age on that day will be allowed to compete, provided they are already in the Public Service of the State, or are Advocates of the Chief Court of Mysore, or have passed the B. L. Degree Examination, or have been specially exempted by the Government from the limit of age prescribed above in this paragraph.

Every candidate must have passed the examination for the Degree of Bachelor of Arts in an Indian University.

3. Candidates for admission to the examination should send in their applications to the Inspector General of Education in Mysore, Mysore, so as to reach him on or before the 1st April 1897, stating the Optional Subject in which they wish to be examined.

Applications should be in the appended Form A, printed copies of which can be had from the Office of the Secretary to Government, General Department, Bangalore, or the Office of the Inspector General of Education, Mysore.

4. No candidate shall be registered unless he have attached to his application either a Treasury receipt showing that he has paid into a Treasury, belonging to the Government of Mysore, a sum of Rupees Fifty, or a Postal Money Order for Rupees Fifty, payable to the Inspector General of Education, Mysore.

5. Every candidate should forward with his application the following testimonials:—

(1) A certificate of birth.

This may be a certificate from the Registrar of Births, a baptismal certificate, or a certificate from a Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, who shall give it only after satisfying himself that the date of birth given is correct by means of the applicant's horoscope or authenticated extracts from school registers or such other evidence as he may consider sufficient.

(2) A certificate of good moral character.

This certificate must be dated not earlier than the 1st January 1897, and must be granted by a person of known respectability, not a relative, who has been intimately acquainted with the candidate for at least the preceding three years.

(3) A certificate or certificates of progress and conduct from the authorities of the College or Colleges where the candidate has been educated.

(4) Evidence showing the occupation and social status of the candidate's family.

(5) A provisional certificate, in Form B appended, from a Medical Officer, not below the rank of a District Civil Surgeon, that the candidate is possessed of a good physical constitution and is fitted for the active duties of an Executive Officer.

6. Such of the registered applicants as may be approved by Her Highness the Maharani-Regent, will alone be admitted to the Competitive Examination. Their names will be published in the Mysore Gazette not later than the 22nd April 1897.

7. Approved candidates, whose names appear in the list published under the last preceding para, must appear before a Medical Board at Bangalore on the 30th July 1897, and only such of them as may be passed by the Medical Board will be allowed to proceed to the examination.

8. The fee paid by any candidate who may not be approved by Her Highness the Maharani-Regent, or who, having been approved by Her Highness, may not be passed by the Medical Board, will be returned.
